

Huntzinger Staffing Services

Right Staff, Right Skills, Right Solution

Obtaining the Expertise You Require

Today's healthcare organizations face constant staffing resource challenges, whether they are propelled by regulatory changes, market-driven initiatives or shifting internal strategies. The experience and leadership skills that are needed today may not meet tomorrow's requirements. With flexible staffing solutions, you can get the expertise you require — for as little or as long as you need it — to meet current demands and position your organization to thrive in an evolving marketplace.

Innovative Staffing Solutions

Huntzinger provides innovative approaches to deliver and manage staffing resources. We offer a robust pool of experienced and certified resources who are available to assist you with staffing needs, IT projects and implementation, or interim executive leadership. Huntzinger can assist you, whether you require one or many staffing resources for your IT, clinical or operational needs.

Staffing Services

- Interim CIO/Executives to drive IT initiatives
- Certified resources on multiple platforms
- Staffing options that expand and support your teams' capabilities
- Short and long-term availability to fit fluctuating needs
- Experienced consultants and/or entire teams to meet staffing demands

Our Approach

At Huntzinger, our Staffing Services go far beyond simply getting our consultants placed within organizations. We listen to our clients so we fully understand their needs, then find the appropriate staffing resource to achieve the outcome that our clients desire. Furthermore, our staffing resources have the experience — and are trained — to understand your top-level strategies and the tactical components that support them. Our consultants focus on details, but also view organizations from a broader perspective to holistically address needs. The result is that our team can help you align the critical components of your organization to drive performance.

Leadership and "Hands-On" Skills

Our consultants provide transformational leadership and management, along with "hands-on" analysis and build expertise. These skills are critical to achieving organizational alignment and process excellence, resulting in dramatically improved clinical, financial and operational results. In addition, our consultants possess advanced toolkits and methodologies to help transform your organization.

Benefit from Our Team's Shared Knowledge

While you directly engage with Huntzinger for a specific set of resources, you benefit from access to our entire talent pool. Thus, instead of relying on the capabilities of select individuals, your solution will benefit from the combined knowledge and experience of all our resources. The result is a solution that is customized and optimized to your specific situation, needs and capabilities — providing you with improved operational and financial performance, while offering enhanced future sustainability

Deep healthcare experience

Our consultants have been in your shoes. As prior CEOs, CIOs and healthcare administrators, their talents and expertise have been enriched through diverse client engagements.

Benefit from the collective knowledge of the entire Huntzinger team during your engagement.

"We had difficulty staffing a critical clinical system implementation project. Huntzinger provided us with an interim resource to fill the void who was excellent. He integrated well with our team and assisted when the team experienced some additional resource needs. We were fortunate to partner with Huntzinger on this need."
